

Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust

Great Expectations Grants

8/5/2015

Organization	Grant Amount	Project Description
El Buen Pastor Latino Community Services	103,400	Operating funds to support their mother-child education program originally funded through a grant from the AVANCE Program.
El Buen Pastor Latino Community Services	112,200	Operating funds for its Listos! and Mas Listos Parent Education Program primarily for mothers and their young children aged 0-4 aligned with the Trust's Great Expectations Initiative.
Family Services, Inc.	165,000	Operating funds to improve classroom practices that support preschoolers' self regulation and executive function in order to strengthen students' school readiness.
First Book	155,000	Operating funds to connect educators with reduced price Mind in the Making (MITM) books and resources.
Forsyth County Department of Public Health	2,500,000	Operating funds for the implementation of the Nurse-Family Partnership (NFP) program in Forsyth County.
Forsyth County Public Library	332,561	Operating funds to equip seven library branches with age-appropriate reading and other literacy materials for children 0-5 as a component of the Trust's Great Expectations early childhood development initiative.
MDC, Inc.	461,898	Operating funds to support the ongoing administration and oversight of the Great Expectations early childhood development initiative.
Northwest Child Development Centers, Inc.	350,000	Capital funds to complete funding for a new child development center named MudPies Downtown East in Winston-Salem.
Northwest Child Development Centers, Inc.	41,927	Operating funds to match NC Pre-K Programs for slots for nine children (full class is 18) at the MudPies Bolton location.
Northwest Child Development Centers, Inc.	150,000	Capital funds to purchase software and technology equipment for a new childcare center located in downtown Winston-Salem called MudPies Downtown East.
Reach Out And Read, Inc.	49,500	Operating funds to support the implementation and expansion of the Reach Out and Read Programs in Forsyth County.
Reach Out And Read, Inc.	165,000	Operating funds to address the integration of quality services for families by expanding the existing Reach Out and Read program while implementing the Help Me Grow system.
Smart Start Of Forsyth County	165,000	Operating funds to implement the My Teaching Partner Program (MTP) for teachers to improve the quality of behavioral interactions between teachers and students.

Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust

Great Expectations Grants

8/5/2015

Organization	Grant Amount	Project Description
University Of North Carolina at Chapel Hill	165,000	Operating funds to implement a professional development program, More Than Baby Talk (MTBT), to build teacher capacity to support the language and communication development of infants and toddlers.
University Of North Carolina at Chapel Hill	164,963	Operating funds to implement a 5-pronged approach to increase optimal complementary feeding through support for breastfeeding and to stimulate verbal and non-verbal communication between children and their caregivers from birth to age three.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	163,900	Operating funds to support the Ready Schools Work Group/Ready Classrooms year two professional development initiative.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	212,778	Operating funds for support of the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Schools participation in the Trust's Great Expectations Early Childhood Education initiative.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	236,500	Operating funds for support of the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Schools participation in the Trust's Great Expectations Early Childhood Education Initiative.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	87,242	Operating support grant to fund the continuation, expansion, and evaluation of the Ready Classrooms professional development initiative in the Pre-K and K classrooms that primarily serve students in Title 1 and Equity Plus elementary schools.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	398,198	Operating funds for the hiring of a Ready Schools Coordinator position to be shared by the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and Smart Start of Forsyth County that will provide leadership, coordination, and implementation of various early childhood education programs initiated by the school system, Smart Start, and the Trust.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	236,500	Operating funds for support of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools participation in the Trust's Great Expectations Early Childhood Education initiative.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	163,620	Operating funds to implement Power of K, a professional development and support program that proposes to develop kindergarten teacher leaders in the district and eventually lead demonstration classrooms.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	313,606	Operating funds to continue WS/FCS's annual participation for Title 1, Pre-K and Kindergarten teachers and their assistants and selected principals to attend the NC Association for the Education of Young Children annual conference and other professional development activities.

Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust

Great Expectations Grants

8/5/2015

Organization	Grant Amount	Project Description
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	646,350	Capital funds to construct or repair playgrounds for Title 1 elementary schools as a component of the Trust's Great Expectations early childhood development initiative.
Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education	336,000	Capital funds to construct or repair playgrounds for Title 1 elementary schools for students in first - fifth grades.
Work-Family Resource Center, Inc.	40,396	Capital funds to purchase technology for website enhancements and for new staff computers.
ZERO TO THREE - National Center for Infants, Toddlers and Families	150,317	Operating funds for ZERO TO THREE (ZTT) to provide quality professional development opportunities to multidisciplinary professionals working with infants, toddlers and their families in Forsyth County.